

MOST MIGHTY AND ALL-KNOWING LORD

The Teares or Lamentacions of a Sorrowfull Soule (1614): No. 25

William Leighton (c.1565-1622)

Thomas Weelkes (1576-1623)
ed. Ross Jallo

CANTUS

ALTUS

TENOR

BASSUS

Most migh-ty and all - know - ing Lord, most migh-ty and all-know-ing — Lord, true spring of

Most migh-ty and all - know - ing Lord, true

Most migh-ty and all - know - ing Lord, migh - ty and all-know - ing Lord, true spring of

Most migh-ty and all - know - ing — Lord, all-know - ing Lord, true spring of con - so - la - tion, true spring of con - so - la - ti - on: I do con - fess with heart — and — spring of con - so - la - ti - on: I do con - fess with heart and 8

6

con - so - la - ti - on, true spring of con-so - la - ti - on: I do con-fess with — heart — and word, Thou art my con - so - la - ti - on: I do con - fess with heart and word, I — do con-fess word, Thou art my pre - ser - va - ti - on, my — pre - ser - va - tion.

12

word, Thou — art my pre - ser - va - ti - on.

8

pre - ser - va - ti - on, Thou art — my pre - ser - va - ti - on.

with — heart and word, Thou art my pre - ser - va - ti - on.